

Mr. Seth George Ramocan

NEW HIGH COMMISSIONER ANNOUNCED

Senator the Honourable Kamina Johnson Smith, Minister of Foreign Affairs and Foreign Trade, announces the appointment of Mr. Seth George Ramocan as High Commissioner-Designate for Jamaica to the United Kingdom (UK). He is expected to assume duties in London in early December.

"Mr. Ramocan has a proven track record of service in the field of diplomacy, politics, education and civil society. His leadership and stewardship roles have been exemplary, always placing Jamaica's best interest and development agenda at the forefront. The Government is fully confident that he will deepen and strengthen Jamaica's relations with the United Kingdom and the Diaspora resident in that country, as well as the Commonwealth and other international organizations under his purview." says Minister Johnson Smith.
